a message from tamara

“At times, I find myself reminiscing of sharp cold air, long nights, and delicate lights gleaming from the eaves of the house. But change is inevitable, so give me change! And with change, give me the newest Steal It Box! I wanted my handpicked curated box with Decor Steals to reflect the change that comes with warmer weather. I wanted it to be simplistic and classy.

From the showstopper of a bench that can be staged by the front door for grandkids to remove their shoes, to the welcoming artichoke that symbolizes hope and joy, to the cutting board perfect for serving loved ones, these pieces were designed to be shared with others. With the abundance of spring and the warmth of summer, we should give our hearts to the change of the earth and to the beauty of growth.”
